Cookie Policy

Cookies are small, often encrypted text files, located in your internet browser and are used by most websites. We use them to help personalise your web experience, ensure you can navigate our website efficiently and perform certain functions. Due to their core role of enhancing or enabling usability or site processes, disabling cookies may prevent you from using certain parts of this website. It will also mean that some features on this website will not function if you do not allow cookies.

In this section you will find information on what cookies may be set when you visit the transfer.xe.com website and how to reject or delete those cookies. Additional information on Cookies is also included in our Privacy Policy.

1. INTRODUCTION AND GENERAL TERMS

We are committed to safeguarding your personal information. Whenever you provide such information, we are legally obliged to use your information in line with all laws concerning the protection of personal information, including the Data Protection Act 1998.

Please note that the website, www.xe.com contains hyperlinks to websites owned and operated by third parties. These third party websites have their own privacy policies, including cookies, and we urge you to review them. They will govern the use of personal information you submit or is collected by cookies whilst visiting these websites. We do not accept any responsibility or liability for the privacy practices of such third party websites and your use of such websites is at your own risk.

2. LIST OF THE MAIN XE MONEY TRANSFER SERVICE WEBSITE COOKIES

From time to time other cookies may be used and we will therefore update the list below as promptly as possible to ensure the list is complete.

PCSearch
Used during the sign up process to store the number of times a user tries to lookup their address and postcode using the address lookup functionality. When a user has tried repeatedly and reached the limit, a message is displayed asking them to manually input their address and postcode details.

HIFX->IgnoreJSDisabled
A unique identifier given to each computer to ensure you are not repeatedly shown messages if Javascript is disabled on your machine. For example “You don’t have the most up to date version of Java installed...’

__RequestVerificationToken_XXXXXXXXXXXX
Ensures the security of the data entered by users into the registration form.

Thx_guid
Used to identify the device you are accessing our website from as an enhanced security measure.

_MRTX.CurrentWebsiteName, MRTX.RedirectFromOSR, ASP.Net_SessionId, bJc3XdF2Sg, xeid
Used to ensure that you can securely log in, access the correct features, and receive the best possible experience when using our website.
3. REMARKETING
Transfer.xe.com also uses 3rd party vendor re-marketing tracking cookies, including the Google Adwords tracking cookie. This means we will continue to show advertisements to you across the internet. As always we respect your privacy and are not collecting any identifiable information through the use of Google’s or any other 3rd party remarketing system.
The third-party vendors, including Google, whose services we use, will place cookies on web browsers in order to serve advertisements based on past visits to our website. Third party vendors, including Google, use cookies to serve advertisements based on a user’s prior visits to our website. This allows us to make special offers and continue to market our services to those who have shown interest in our service.

4. DECLINING COOKIES
Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.
